

PRESS RELEASE:

The Great Canadian Comedy Tour Company Signs Agreement with Travel Professionals International

Moncton NB, November 4th, 2007-- Travel Professionals International (TPI) is pleased to announce the recent addition of The Great Canadian Comedy Tour Company to their team of TPI Agents. The Great Canadian Comedy Tour Company brings with them a strong entertainment background, impeccable management skills outgoing personalities and a passion to the industry to assure their success and commitment to their client's satisfaction. Unlike Internet Booking Engines or large call centers, our travel consultants are full-service and take the moment to counsel you through your decision-making. We understand that each client is an individual with particular needs and preferences.

With over 500 Associate Agencies nationwide, Travel Professionals International (TPI) agencies have the expertise and designations required to offer clients the resources and programs to service all their travel needs. We are members of IATA – International Airline Transport Association, CLIA – Cruise Lines International Association, BBB – Better Business Bureau, and TICO – Travel Industry Council of Ontario and through TPI's continuous education process, agents have the knowledge to meet and service all of a customer's travel requirements.

The travel industry is a dynamic market, jammed with many resources of information influenced by the web and other forms of mass media. It is increasingly more difficult to find a reliable source of information without vigorous hours of research. Travel Professionals International (TPI) hosts a vast network of travel specialists with many years of combined experience in the travel industry. TPI Travel Consultants have access to the expertise in any travel related service in destinations worldwide! TPI is built on the values of each associate being a business owner. Their strong customer service and a relentless drive for customer satisfaction, is a resource you can rely on.

TPI and The Great Canadian Comedy Tour Company– We'll Take You There"

MEDIA CONTACT:

Tony Hebert
President
tony@youwillhavefun.com
506-859-2489